Community Service

Wednesday, November 9, 2011, the students of Ogden Middle School are going to travel throughout the town of Ogden, with rakes in hand!

The students and staff will be helping the community by raking and bagging leaves for those who are in need of assistance with fall yard work.

Students need to come to school on that day, dressed for the weather. Students are also encouraged to bring rakes, gloves, etc. (Rakes should be labeled with a name.)

If you know of any community member, who could benefit from our service, please contact the office at Ogden Middle School. 275-2912

Bunson Burners, Sulfuric Acid, and Mr. Smith's Mustache

By Nick Watke

One day in science class Nick Watke, Zach Mccloud, Nathan Kennedy, and Bane Roberts had to stay after school for talking the whole science class. At 3:30 Mr. Smith decided that they should learn about bunson burners and sulfuric acid. Mr. Smith told them to get safety goggles, so Nick grabbed cover slips and taped them to his eyes then went to the lab tables. Zach didn't grab anything and went straight to the lab tables. Nathan grabbed two beakers and taped them to his eyes and went to the lab tables. Bane grabbed his xxxxxl sweatshirt and went to the lab tables. Then Mr. Smith told them to each grab a test tube and Nick grabbed a Florence flask and went to his lab table. Zach grabbed a Erlenmeyer flask and went to the lab tables. Nathan grabbed a beaker and went to the lab tables. Bane grabbed a test tube and went to the lab tables. Then Mr. Smith had us get bunson burners, while he filled the Florence flask, Erlenmeyer flask, Beaker, and Test tube with sulfuric acid. Now here comes the funny part. Then Mr. Smith told us to light our bunson burners. Nick turned his gas jet and control knob all the way on, struck the match, then a huge explosion went off and Nick flew threw the wall and into Mrs. Satre's room. Zach, Nathan, and Bane lit theirs correctly. Then Mr. Smith gave Bane and Zach test tube clamps and gave Nathan a ring and told them to grab their glasses and heat the sulfuric acid with the bunson burners. Then Zach held his over his flame to long and it popped and fizzed in his face so he ran to the eye wash station and washed his eyes out and then slipped because of the water all over the floor. Mr. Smith slipped on the water as well and grabbed Nathan and pulled him down with him. Then Mr. Smith got up and started to fall again but this time he grabbed the lab table, and the bunson burner caught his mustache on fire. He started running around the room screaming. Meanwhile, Bane was laughing his head off and his sweatshirt went into the flame and caught on fire so then he started to run around the room screaming as well. So there you have it. Nick on a pile of bricks in Mrs. Satre's room, Zach and Nathan trying to get up off the slippery floor, and Mr. Smith and Bane running around the room screaming while on fire.

Oh my Goodness! There's a ghost in by closet?!!?

By Bane Razberry Roberts

For Dobby the house elf,
My expected child.

Introduction

One day I decided to go outside. I got scared. That Sunday night, I saw someone throwing teddy bears at my window I looked outside, and it turned out to be some French guy selling vased monkey tears.

In the middle of the night, alone, and unarmed I walked to the grocery store and picked up some ice cream and ketchup. You know what, forget the ketchup. In that Monday morning my sister woke me up saying "Bane! It's time for school!"

My day at school was normal except for the fact that at lunch I found a turtle in my ham sandwich. I ate the turtle anyways. During recess, well that's a whole other story.

Oh My Goodness! There's a Ghost In My Closet?!!

Recess was terribly weird. First of all I saw some kid eating brains off the sidewalk? Second of all five movie stars out of nowhere just started climbing out of the sewer. Third of all I saw a carnival game on the stage, so I went to it and won. When I turned around everybody started throwing toy cars at me? After my super long day I decided to buy some cats and call it a night. That night I heard a cat and I don't know why. I woke up and looked at my closet I saw some dude dressed up as Barney, but he was transparent.

I asked him what he was doing and the door slammed shut. I hid under my covers. My covers flew off me. Later my dad came in the room turned the light on and said "Bane sit down. We need to talk"

He told me I was not adopted. I freaked out and he said something about he has a family of secret powers, my grandfather was a teleporter and it skips a generation. I said, "Wait, so I have special powers?" so gave me something he called teleportation water. He said not to drink it just look in it and say teleportation. So I took out a straw and started to drink from it. He threw me across the kitchen, and I barfed out the water.

Later that evening I got a letter in the mail that said "Dear parent/ Guardian of Bane Roberts. To Be Continued..."
